

Photosynthesis

Class 8 • biology

Lesson summary: Photosynthesis is the process by which green plants make food using sunlight.

Key Points

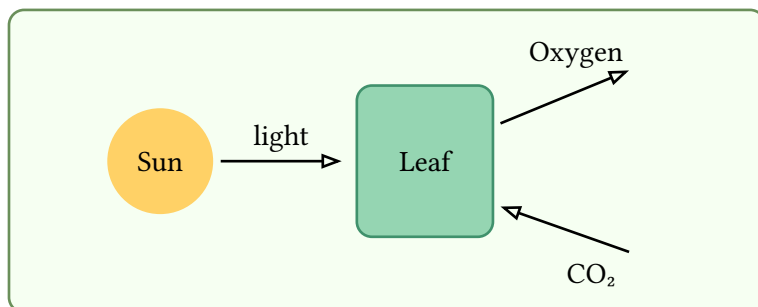

- Plants absorb sunlight using chlorophyll.
- Carbon dioxide enters through tiny pores called stomata.
- Water is absorbed by roots.
- Glucose is produced as food.
- Oxygen is released as a by-product.

Main Equation

Photosynthesis word/formula form:

Simple Visual

Quiz

Question 1

What pigment helps plants absorb sunlight?

Answer: Chlorophyll

Question 2

Which gas is released during photosynthesis?

Answer: Oxygen